

EXTENSION SERIES NO. 37
ENGINEERING EXTENSION DEPARTMENT

PROCEEDINGS
OF THE
TWENTY-SECOND ANNUAL ROAD SCHOOL
HELD AT
PURDUE UNIVERSITY
January 20-24, 1936

Compiled and Edited by
BEN H. PETTY
Professor of Highway Engineering

PURDUE UNIVERSITY
Lafayette, Indiana
July, 1936

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	PAGE
Preface.....	5
Papers—
Indiana's Roads in Relation to Her Future Development, by James D. Adams, Chairman, Indiana State Highway Commission, Indianapolis.....	7
Who Should Pay for the Highways?, by John S. Worley, Professor of Transportation Engineering, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan.....	14
Co-operation between City, County, and State Road Departments, by John W. Wheeler, Commissioner, Indiana State Highway Commission, Indianapolis.....	20
Observations on European Roads, by John S. Crandell, Professor of Highway Engineering, University of Illinois, Urbana, Illinois.....	24
Cement-Bound Macadam Pavements, by C. R. Wightman, Director, Department of Public Works, Benton Harbor, Michigan.....	25
Activities of the State Planning Board, by Lawrence V. Sheridan, Consultant, State Planning Board of Indiana, Indianapolis.....	34
Survey of Road Conditions Before Resurfacing, by George Gault, Wayne County Surveyor, Richmond.....	35
The Indiana Secondary Road Program, by M. R. Keefe, Chief Engineer, Indiana State Highway Commission, Indianapolis.....	41
What Happens When County Road Maintenance Funds Are Excessively Curtailed, by Todd Stoops, Secretary-Manager, Hoosier Motor Club, Indianapolis.....	49
Road Work on Conservation Properties, by Denzil Doggett, Assistant State Engineer, Indiana Conservation Department, Indianapolis..	53
Progress in Surface and Subgrade Stabilization, by Arthur Smith, Engineer of Tests, Indiana State Highway Commission, Indianapolis.....	57
The Construction of Small Treated-Timber Bridges in Dubois County, Indiana, by Carl J. Heim, Dubois County Surveyor and Road Supervisor, Jasper.....	67
Stage Constructions As It Applies to Indiana Roads, by Earl B. Lockridge, Field Engineer of Maintenance, Indiana State Highway Commission, Indianapolis.....	69

	PAGE
The Use of Heavy Equipment in County Road Maintenance, by Richard H. Hofmann, Franklin County Road Supervisor, Brookville.	75
Patching Road Surface Breaks, by C. W. Siniff, Field Engineer of Maintenance, Indiana State Highway Commission, Indianapolis.	78
Overhauling and Repairing Highway Equipment, by Harry K. Gottschalk, Allen County Road Supervisor, Fort Wayne.	80
Office Help Needed for Adequate Records, by C. G. Berry, Office Deputy, Marion County Surveyor and Road Supervisor's Office, Indianapolis.	82
Oil Mats, by Ivan Craggs, Johnson County Road Supervisor, Franklin	84
Road Oil and Powdered Asphalt, by George H. Morrow, Howard County Surveyor and City Engineer, Kokomo.	86
Tar Roads, by Nate E. Weekly, Randolph County Road Supervisor, Winchester.	88
Cutback Asphalt, by W. M. Barnes, Howard County Road Supervisor, Kokomo.	90
Normal Procedure in Cleaning Out Drainage Ditches, by Robert J. Pfeiderer, Kosciusko County Surveyor, Warsaw.	92
Publications of the Engineering Extension Dept	95